DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgement is made of the applicant's reply received on 3/28/07, by the this amendment, claims 1 and 10 are amended, and claims 1-16 are pending.

Drawings

1. The replacement drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the tool for insertion of the lead retention element with an aligning flow passage must be shown as well as the method of insertion (examiner recommends a flow chart if applicant is pressed for time) or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered. This feature was depicted in the original drawings submitted in this application; however, when applicant submitted replacement drawings; the applicant failed to depict the tool.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1,5,6,10,13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over RIES (2005/0131481 A1).

Regarding claims 1,5,6,10,13, and 14, RIES discloses a connector module (106) including a sidewall (110) having an opening (136) extending through the sidewall in a substantially orthogonal position to the connector bore and a connector bore (112,114) adapted to receive a connector contact terminal of a lead (Fig 1) and a set screw (160) extending through an opening (Fig 2,3) containing a tool engagement portion (165) and a connector contact engagement portion (162). A flow passage (170) formed as a bore extending through the set screw (paragraphs 82 and 83). However, while RIES does not specifically disclose that the flow passage is in fluid communication, the examiner takes the position that it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill that the flow passage

(170) would be in fluid communication with a connector bore since air could inherently still flow through the disclosed ring stop (174) of RIES.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed against the rejection of claims 1,5,6,10,13, and 14 in view of RIES have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The examiner believes that it would still be inherent or at least obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that air could escape through passage 170.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4,8,9, and 16 are allowed.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not disclose nor teach a tool for the insertion of a lead retention element containing a flow passage in fluid communication with a flow passage of the lead retention element.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

7. Claims 7 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
